Pastor’s Corner

The question is often asked in the life of the church, “How do we continue to move forward in an age when so many seem to be falling away?” In order to stem the tide and continue a forward movement, I see at least three broad groups of people that have to be involved if we are going to have a growing and vital church far into the 21st century: The Young, Middle-aged, and Older people. All are important to the work of God – no one is exempt.

First, we need young people coming and staying as a part of our church!

The church in the book of Acts was able to "turn the world upside down" (Acts 17:6) because of all the young people that came to the faith. Peter, was probably in his thirties, and the apostle John was only a teenager. Most studies concluded that 90% or more of conversions occur before the age of 30, and most before the age of 25.

Since it is young people that are most likely to become converted we need young people coming in the church, or there will be no real growth from conversions. If we want to develop mature, steadfast, and faithful Christians who will become the future leaders of the church then we must bring them in and keep them. Perhaps in our midst today there is a future Jeremiah, Corrie ten Boom or even the future Chair of the Administrative Council?

Secondly, we need our middle-aged people to be set on fire for the Lord!

The middle-aged persons who function as the leaders of our church need to catch the fire of the Lord in their belly. We need to realize that what we do today shapes the future of the church tomorrow. No one likes to sign up for another committee or an extra meeting a month, but if we don't burn with the fire of enthusiasm for our Lord how can we ever expect those behind us to take up the banner and move forward?

I'll make you this promise: give your church and the Lord 100% and I will do all I can to streamline the structure, eliminate meetings and help us create a way to better manage the business of the church so we can focus on the ministry that this world sorely needs.

Finally, our elderly need to be honored.

No church would be where it is today without the faithful service of those who have gone on before us. We need to find a way to honor our older members. We also need to realize that within and beneath those grayed hairs and bent bodies lies a wealth of wisdom that we would be wise not to ignore. I believe that in the senior members of our church we have a great untapped resource. We have persons of faith who can storm the very gates of heaven itself with their faithful prayers. We have persons who can help to mentor the young and guide the middle aged. We have persons to whom we need to reach out as a congregation and let them know that they will not be left behind, because we cannot move ahead without them

I believe in the depths of my very being that God has an exciting time laid out before us. Won't you join with me in seeing what God has in store?

Blessings,

The Food Pantry serves people from all over Baltimore County and provides a much needed resource for people who are food insecure. The Pantry feeds an average of 70 families (270 people) per month.

In addition to the kind donors who attend PHUMC, we are fortunate to have community partners who are very generous with their donations (Perry Hall Giant, Perry Hall Presbyterian, Fallston United Methodist Church, to name a few) as well. The Pantry is open Wednesday afternoon and Friday and Saturday morning, and is staffed by volunteers.

If you know someone who could use food assistance, please have them call 410-256-1897 for an appointment.

The most needed food items are cereal, tuna, canned beans, pasta, spaghetti sauce, peanut butter and jelly.
