CALL TO WORSHIP

L: Siblings in Christ, through the waters of baptism, we are claimed, washed clean, and called.

P: We come to remember who we are and whose we are.

L: We are summoned to remain faithful members of Christ’s holy church and to serve as Christ’s representatives in the world.

P: We gather as one body, ready to worship and to serve.

L: Let us worship the God who claims us, redeems us, and sends us forth in love.

P: With joy and thanksgiving, we worship God!

OPENING PRAYER

God of might, you call us to be strong and to firmly choose to walk alongside you. Clothe us with your armor as we gather, that we may stand against all that opposes your will. Shower us with truth, righteousness, and peace, and strengthen us in faith and prayer. Empower us to embody Christ’s love as we serve the world with courage and grace. Amen.

A Reaffirmation of Our Baptism

Today, we reaffirm the covenant God declared in our baptism. If you have not been baptized and would like to be, please talk to me. We can make that happen. For now, we are remembering and reaffirming our baptismal covenant.

Renunciation of Sin and Reaffirmation of Vows UMH 50

Remembrance of our Baptism

We will come to the table in single file to remember our baptism.

You may participate in whatever way is most comfortable for you: dipping your hand into the water to take a token of remembrance or standing before the water and taking a token of remembrance from the bowl beside the water or remaining in your seat.

Thanksgiving and Commitment

L: Let us rejoice in the faithfulness of our covenant God. We give thanks for what God has already done. And as Christ’s body in this place, we recommit ourselves to faithful participation in the ministries of the church – through our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness.

P: We will practice the truth in love. We will put away falsehood and speak words that give grace. We will forgive one another as God in Christ has forgiven us. We will walk as children of light, filled with the Spirit. We will stand firm and pray for all the saints.

L: The God of all grace, who has called us to eternal glory in Christ, establish and strengthen you by the power of the Holy Spirit, that you may live in grace and peace. Amen.
